What's Happening & What's Happened

January 22, 2026

GracePointe Family,

We are approaching the end of our 21 Days of Prayer & Fasting. Saturday is our last day. I hope you have drawn closer to God and experienced growth in your prayer life. How about those big prayers? Keep praying them! God is listening. God is working. God will answer one way or another. That brings up an important question. What if God's answer is no or different than you envisioned? Trust God! He is good, and he is faithful.

Weather forecasts for this weekend keep changing. That's not surprising. We will plan to have services as long as the roads and our parking lot are not covered in ice. Currently, it looks like we will be okay. If you don't feel safe getting on the roads, please join us online. Thank you Lee, Gabe, Reid, Jonathan, and Wyatt, for serving behind the scenes to enable us to have sound, video, and be online. You're the best!

Financial Peace University is about to start! I have been offered a couple of scholarships to cover the cost if you need one. We want everyone to have the opportunity to grow in biblical stewardship. How we manage money says a lot about our walk with the Lord. Maybe that's why Jesus talked a lot about material things. Following Jesus and mismanaging money are not congruent. Be bold. Be obedient. Take a step of faith and learn how to better steward the resources God has entrusted to you. Childcare is being offered for those who need it. Sign up!

This Sunday, I want to share one more message on prayer. Most of us have experienced prayers of faith that didn't get answered the way we prayed or expected them to. What do we do with these disappointments? Some people lose faith. Some significantly dial back their prayer life. How do we respond? What can we do now to prepare for those potential disappointments? Pray for me as I continue to prepare.

I Love You!
